DEFENSES TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

COMES NOW Defendant PORTFOLIO RECOVERY ASSOCIATES, LLC ("PRA")
and answers Plaintiff's Complaint as follows:

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. PRA lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 1 of the Complaint and therefore denies those allegations.

2. In response to paragraph 2 of Plaintiff's Complaint, PRA admits that it is a Delaware limited liability company with its registered agent as Corporation Service Company located at 300 Deschutes Way SW Suite 208 MC-CSCI, Tumwater, WA 98501. PRA objects that in certain circumstances and in certain instances it acts as a "debt collector" as defined under the FDCPA and in certain circumstances and in certain instances, it conducts business in

1 the State of Washington. PRA is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief
 2 as to whether PRA acted as a “debt collector” with respect to Plaintiff or whether it attempted

PRA'S AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

By way of Further Answer and as Affirmative Defenses to the Complaint, PRA asserts the following affirmative defenses. PRA reserves the right to amend this Answer to assert additional defenses, cross-claims, counterclaims, or other defenses, or to withdraw pled defenses as discovery proceeds.

1. Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief Can be Granted. The Complaint, and each and every cause of action therein, fails to state a claim against PRA upon which relief can be granted.

2. Comparative Negligence. Plaintiff's injuries and damages, if any, were caused or contributed to by Plaintiff's own acts, omissions, and/or misconduct.

3. Third-Party Fault. The injuries for which Plaintiff seeks relief were proximately caused, in whole or in part, by the acts or omissions of one or more third parties. Liability of the responsible parties should be apportioned according to their individual degree of fault, and any judgment against PRA should be reduced accordingly.

1 4. Plaintiff's Waiver, Consent, or Misconduct. Plaintiff's claims and alleged 2 damages are barred in whole or in part by Plaintiff's waiver, consent, estoppel, laches, and/or 3 unclean hands.

4 5. Indispensable Parties. Plaintiff has failed to join necessary and/or indispensable
5 parties.

6 6. Superseding Cause. Plaintiff's claims are barred because the injuries or damages
7 that Plaintiff complains of were proximately caused, in whole or in part, by the intervening or 8 superseding conduct of Plaintiff, third parties, or by events that were extraordinary under the 9 circumstances or not foreseeable in the normal course of events.

10 7. Contribution. PRA is entitled to contribution from any joint tortfeasor to the 11 extent that PRA pays any amount of damages in excess of its pro rata share as determined by 12 the trier of fact.

13 8. Failure to Mitigate. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate damages.

14 9. Lack of Warranties. No warranties existed, either express or implied, between 15 PRA and Plaintiff. If any applicable warranties were made, which is expressly denied, such 16 were excluded orally, in writing, by course of dealing, by course of performance, by usage of 17 trade, or were limited to exclude the relief now requested by Plaintiff. Further, if any 18 applicable warranties were made, which is expressly denied, such were expressly disclaimed,
19 and Plaintiff is therefore barred from recovery for any breach of warranty.

20 10. Standing. Plaintiff has no Article III standing as he has experienced no injury in 21 fact.

22 11. Offset. Any monetary award against PRA must be offset by the monies due and 23 owing the PRA from the Plaintiff.

24 12. Arbitration. PRA asserts that arbitration may be the appropriate venue for 25 Plaintiffs' claims, as, upon information and belief, PRA may possess certain arbitration rights
26 based on contracts entered into by Plaintiff.

13. Bona-fide error. PRA states that any violation of the FDCPA which it denies occurred, was unintentional and incurred as a bona fide error in spite of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid such error, as PRA has policies and procedures in place to ensure that upon transferring an account to its Litigation Department, PRA follows all applicable federal and state laws. PRA affirmatively states that it maintains procedures and protocols to comply with and conform to the requirements of the FDCPA and the authority interpreting the FDCPA, including those related to written communications to consumers. These procedures and protocols are reasonably adapted to avoid violations of the FDCPA, such as the ones alleged in this case, as PRA has in place policies and procedures to ensure that its written communications comply with the FDCPA. PRA's employees are trained to comply with all of its policies and PRA's training procedures are extensive, thorough and reasonably adapted to prevent its collectors from violating its policies or the FDCPA. Therefore, any alleged violation of 15 U.S.C. §1692 occurred as a result of a bona fide error.

14. Statute of limitations. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

15. PRA reserves its right to amend this Answer to allege additional affirmative defenses and other relief pursuant to discovery in this case.

PRA'S PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, having fully answered Plaintiff's Complaint, PRA requests the following relief:

- a. That Plaintiff's Complaint be dismissed with prejudice;
- b. That Plaintiff recover nothing from PRA on Plaintiff's claims herein;
- c. That PRA be awarded its costs and disbursements herein, including reasonable fees; and

1 d. That PRA be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem 2 appropriate.
